ANNOUNCEMENTS:

THANK YOU HOLY SPIRIT!

Together through pledges, first and second fruits, and promissory notes, we have enough to pay off our bank loan by April 26, 2024. With the bank paid off and with the generosity of members of the church who loaned money, we have until June 2026 to repay these loans. We are relying on your unreceived pledges to pay that obligation. Many thanks to these fellow church members for their trust and generosity and to each of you who stepped up. To God be the Glory!

Beth and Barry Jones, Sue Ellen and Ray Williams -Campaign Co-chairs

PARISH WEEKEND:

Our annual Parish Weekend is next Friday-Sunday. Fr. Brandon and some of our parishioners will be up at Camp Mikell. We will still have our two usual services here at the church.

The Rev. Canon John Bolton will be our Celebrant and Preacher for the day.

BIBLE STUDY HAS RESUMED:

Join us in the Parish Hall Thursdays at 10:30 am for Bible Study.

We are currently studying the Gospel of John.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL- June 3-7:

VBS is a fantastic way to introduce not just our children but all the children in our lives to the fullness of God's love for us all! Mark your calendar and save the dates for the children or teens in your life as well as yourself. There is a spot for everyone to volunteer and share yourself and your story with all of those of us just getting to know and love God! Our theme this year is "God gives us a Thankful Heart!" Each day we will focus on a gift that God has shared with us to help us in our lives. All are invited to join in the week, the price per child is $50. Scholarship funds are available. Registration forms are available in the Parish Hall.
