Church Office Hours

Mon - Thurs. 10:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.; Closed on Friday

Episcopalian 101:

What's the difference between sitting, standing, kneeling, nodding, bowing, crossing, genuflecting, and prostrating, and why are Episcopalians so keen on calisthenics? What's so special about Sacraments and Saints, and why do they get capital essses? What's the big deal about the Book of Common Prayer, and why do we like to read to God so much? And--most disturbing of all--why does the priest dress like a prudish Las Vegas showgirl/Elton John cover band?

Get the answers to all these questions and more in our Episcopalian 101 class, starting Sunday, August 14th, between the services (9:30ish-10:30), and lasting through September 18th.

If you're a newcomer, oldcomer, midcomer, or occasionalcomer and you've ever had questions about why we do what we do, this class is for you!
